

2011 Scholastic Art Awards

Congratulations to the Benson art students who received recognition and awards in the 2011 Nebraska Scholastic Art Awards competition. Once again Benson High Magnet School received the MOST awards of any school in the competition. There were over 1700 entries from all over the State of Nebraska. The Gold Key Award work will now be digitally forwarded to New York for the National Scholastic Art Awards judging.

The opening reception and awards ceremony is on February 26, 2011 at the Omaha Public Schools TAC Building located at 3215 Cuming Street. The ceremony will take place in the second floor auditorium. Following is a list of students and their awards:
